“ALL THE WORLD’S A STAGE . . .”

SPECIAL COLLECTION

HACAWA, '98

BEN PAYSEUR, EDITOR

William Shakespeare, in AS YOU LIKE IT, wrote, "All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players . . ."

This memorable quote can be applied to Lenoir-Rhyne College. It is our stage. And everyone who appears on this stage, be they students, faculty, staff, are players in the drama that unfolds here each year.

With this idea in mind that our college is our stage, and all who are here, are players, we present our 1998 yearbook.

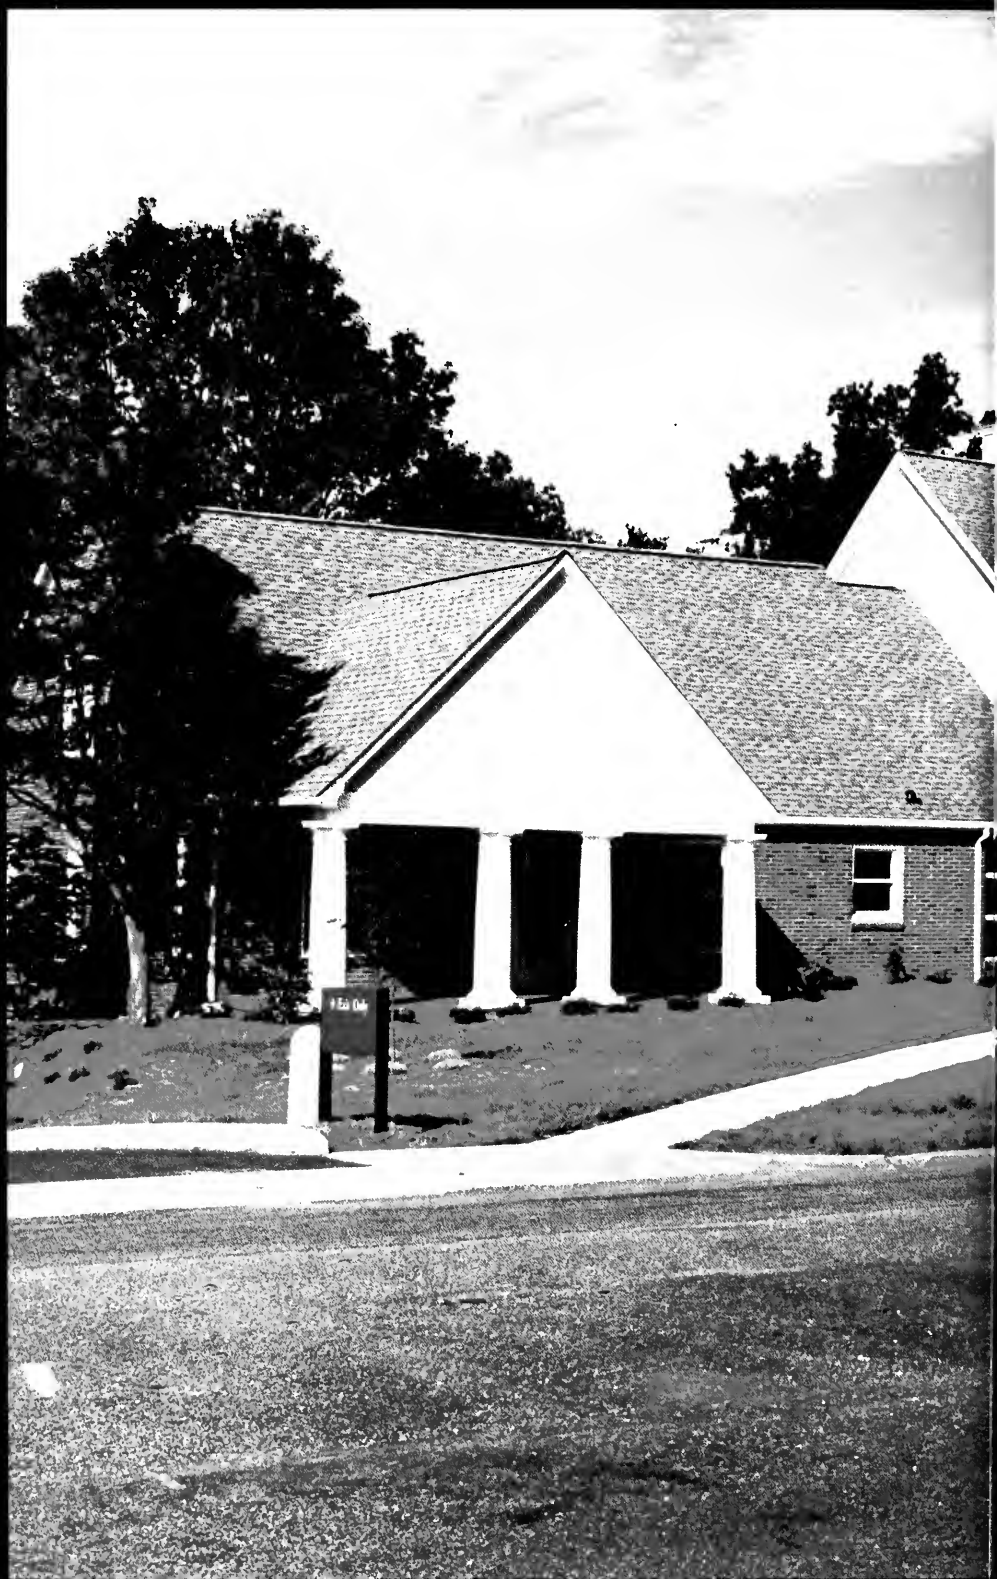

"THIS IS OUR STAGE . . . "

"AND THESE ARE OUR PLAYERS . . ."

On special moments, the stage is alive with color and promise.

Graduation, Family Day, Freshman Preview, Theatre, Sports,
Homecoming — these are “special moments.”

We are all a part of the drama of

EVENTS

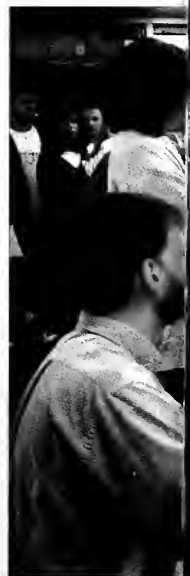

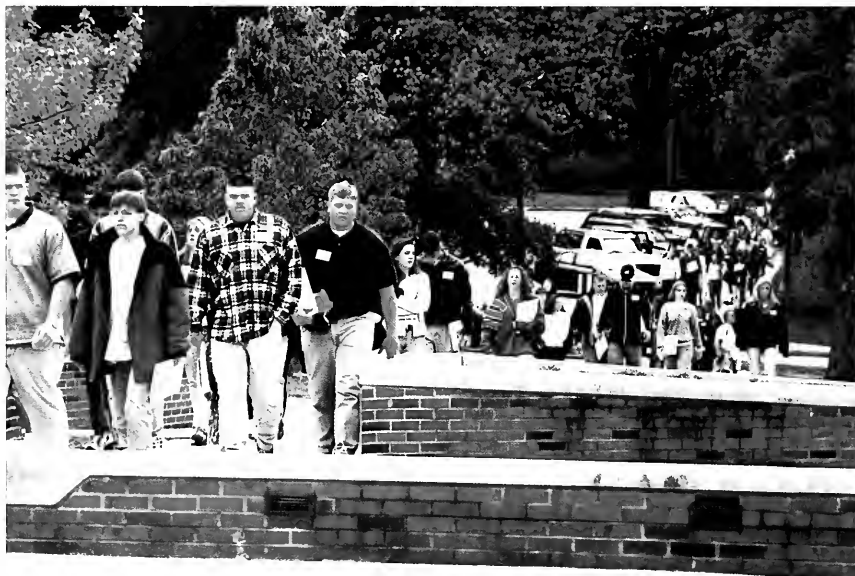

WELCOME MAT OUT FOR FROSH

In April and in June of each calendar year, the Admissions Staff hold an open house for the incoming freshman class.

This enables first-year students to meet their prospective teachers and register for fall classes, as well as meet other members of their class and get to know the campus as well.

Right: The Admissions staff have smiles and welcomes for the class of 2001. L to r: Gennie Haring, Todd Cutter, Dietra Dula, Chris Stevenson, and Tom Prevatt.

HONORS CONVO HELD APRIL 30

DR. ROBERT WINTER

DR. LOWELL ASHMAN

PROF. RAYMOND STRUNK

The annual Honors Convocation was held on April 30, 1997 in Monroe Auditorium. After opening remarks by the president, Ryan LaHurd, and the invocation by college pastor, the Reverend Andrew Weisner, numerous awards and honors were given to members of the college community.

Dr. Robert Winter, Associate Professor of Art, was recognized as the 1997 recipient of the Raymond Bost Distinguished Professor Award; Professor Ray Strunk, retiring member of the Business Department, was given the Roediger Distinguished Professorship; and Dr. Lowell Ashman, chair of the department of Economics and Political Science, was honored with the dedication of the 1997 HACAWA.

Among the many other outstanding recipients were Anita Johnson Gwin, who received the SGA award; Kristin Pettis, the SGA Leadership award; Ellen Rearden, both the SGA President's award and the Dean's award; and Danette Steelman-Bridges, the outstanding student organization advisor's award.

The Jerry Shaw award was given to Jackie Brown; Nora Reiger received the Freshman medal; Laura Nicole Elledge received the Journalism award, as well as the Jefferson Cup for editorial achievement.

Scholastic honors were given to the following students: Anne Barnes (Cecelia Willard Science award); Ann Drum (Cavins Chemistry Scholarship); Mia Kim (Freshman award in chemistry); Sarah Hauseter (Keiser English award and poetry award); Heather Hollifield (Brandon History award); Keith Saine (Pearl Setzer Deal Playmakers award); Aaron Lange (the Berry Memorial Art award); and Lisa Miller (the Media Excellence award).

Sarah Hinlicky received the German Club award; Tripp Miller, the Strunk Accounting award; Ellen Rearden the Fowler award in education; Michelle Reed, the Farthing award in nursing; David Barton, the Theuser Sociology award; Mike Langford and Kaarina Kelly, the Stahler Music award, and Marcus Dykeman, the Hickory Music Club scholarship.

ALUMNI AWARDS GIVEN IN APRIL

The Opal L. Moretz Alumni Service awards were presented in April 1997 to three alumni of the college and an outstanding professor.

Raymond M. Strunk, Centennial Professor of Business was the recipient of the Service to the College award. Professor Strunk retired in May 1997 after 41 years on the faculty, 24 of them as the Chair of the Business Department. A graduate of Catawba College and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, he was a previous recipient of the Raymond Bost Distinguished Professor award and the yearbook dedication. For 30 years he served as director of music at the First Presbyterian Church in his native Newton.

Rick Barnes, class of 1977, received the Distinguished Alumnus award. A native of Hickory, Barnes played basketball at Hickory High and with the Lenoir-Rhyne Bears (1973-1977) before beginning his coaching career at North State Academy in his home town. He went on to coach at Davidson College, George Mason University, the University of Alabama, The Ohio State University, and Providence College in Rhode Island before becoming head basketball coach at Clemson University in 1994. Regarded as one of the top NCAA Division I coaches in the nation, he led the Providence Priars to three NCAA tournaments and won the Big East Tournament in 1994.

Andrea T. Benfield, class of 1962, was the recipient of the Service to the Community award, one of the many honors she has won over the years. In 1996 she was named the first-ever North Carolina Social Worker of the Year by the N.C. Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers. Her vision helped create many of the department's programs for children. She worked with state leaders on several projects including one to develop the assessment tools adopted by the state in 1993. She has served as chair of the Lutheran Family Services Board of Trustees and on the N.C. Certification Board for Social Workers. She received her M.S.W. degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and taught for several years as an adjunct professor at her alma mater.

Julie K. Huffman, class of 1982, was awarded the Service to the Alumni Association honors. She has served on the Association's Board of Directors and as a local chapter chairperson, devoting numerous hours of volunteer work on behalf of the College. Julie is active in the local theatre and as a member of her church, Holy Trinity of Hickory.

Lenoir-Rhyne College held its 106th graduation ceremony on May 10, 1997. The baccalaureate service was at 7:30 p.m. on May 9, with commencement exercises at 10:00 a.m. on May 10.

The baccalaureate speaker was Bishop William B. Trexler of the Florida-Bahamas Synod of the E.L.C. in America.

The commencement speaker was H.A. Wheeler, president and general manager of the Charlotte Motor Speedway.

Honorary degrees were awarded James Russell Boggs (opposite top), Richard Little, Ned Jarrett, and Wilson Smith (opposite bottom).

Seniors who hold membership in Pi Sigma Alpha honorary political science fraternity gather with their medals before graduation (opposite middle).

CLASS OF 2001 ARRIVES ON STAGE

PROLOGUE STARTS LR DRAMA

Each year Lenoir-Rhyne conducts its introduction to college life, known as Prologue. Student leaders for 1997 were Jonathan Blackmon and Cynthia Kuehnert. This year's theme was "Unity Through Community" (right).

A popular element of Prologue is the ropes course, testing not only physical skills but cooperation among participants. (see below).

A special program introduces residence life (opposite top). The ropes course continues (opposite middle). And there is always registration for the fall term. Dr. Boatmon is seen here (opposite bottom) advising members of the class of 2001.

RAIN FELL ON "GREATEST SHOW"

Once again, it rained at Homecoming. And not only was there rain, but also fog as well. But the parade went on as planned (opposite top) and Kappa Delta sorority took top honors. Rick Barnes, head basketball coach at Clemson and an LR alumnus, was grand marshal. Above is Barnes receiving a gift from Senior Class president Chris Campbell. The afternoon football game was with Wingate. Below: We scored!

NEW PLAYERS ON OUR STAGE

Mark Vest, Director of Student Development

Connie Smith, Assoc. Dean of Students

Troy Justensen, Dir. of Special Services

When I began working on the 1998 HACAWA last Spring, I had no idea what was in the future. The first seven months went smoothly, but then things became a little rocky. I never expected to wake up one morning to find out Dr. Boatmon, my advisor and friend, had passed away. From that moment on, my life changed. The HACAWA became a challenge, one that I knew I could not accomplish alone. I owe thanks to many people for their help and support over the past several months. Without these people the 1998 HACAWA would have never been finished.

The students who volunteered many hours of their time to see that the HACAWA would be finished cannot be thanked enough. These students include Andrea Faw, Jon Porter, Amber Ervin, Marie Millwood, and Lee Balonaco. I owe special gratitude to Dr. Russell Benton for helping out as the advisor and making sure things went smoothly. Also, Dottie Crafton for the many hours of typing that she did for us.

I would like to thank James Labrenz and Phil Robinson for their excellent photography work. Many thanks to Dr. Suzie Jeffers, Chris Campbell, John Collins, Sarah Millwood, and everyone else who have helped and showed support in completing this yearbook.

Bill Hall and Jostens have been exceptional in making sure that the HACAWA was a top priority. I cannot give them enough credit for everything they have done.

Thanks to Dean Anita Johnson-Gwin for her help in finding a new office for the yearbook and making sure that I had the necessary materials.

To the brothers of Theta Chi, your support is what kept me going through the rough moments. Thanks for everything.

Thanks to Jennifer Starnes for her patience and caring while the yearbook was being finalized.

I would like to extend a huge "thank you" to my parents and family for their love and support. I never could have made it without you.

To everyone else who has offered support, I greatly appreciate all your thoughts and generosity.

I wish the class of 1998 good luck as they exit the stage of Lenoir-Rhyne and move on to the next part of their lives.

Their album "Spice" hit the charts in early 1997.

NAMES IN THE NEWS

U.S. Secretary of State Madeleine Albright was the most visible and active secretary of state since Henry Kissinger. She was the highest woman in the history of U.S. government and she was admired and respected by the diplomatic corps.

Often called Israel's first American-style politician, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu had a stormy year in office. With suicide bombings by militant Muslim groups and with terrorism a major problem, the Arab-Jewish peace process was in danger of collapse.

MOTHER TERESA DIES AT 87

WORLD MOURNS A PRINCESS

Britain and the world bid farewell to Diana, Princess of Wales, on a sparkling September morning with a grand tribute rich in pageantry.

Since her death in a car crash in Paris a week before, the country had witnessed an astonishing outpouring of grief that forced a repentant monarchy to join in the kind of full celebration of Diana's life that the millions of people who flooded into London demanded.

Divorced from Prince Charles, Diana was in Paris with her friend, Dodi al Fayed. Both he and Diana were killed in the crash of their Mercedes automobile. The driver of the car was also killed. A bodyguard survived the crash.

Her sons, Prince William, 15, and Prince Harry, 12, stood in attendance, joined by their father, the Prince of Wales and her brother, Earl Spencer, as her body was taken into Westminster Abbey.

Millions packed the city for the funeral of Diana. It was a crowd unmatched since the end of World War II. Diana would be buried on the Spencer family estate.

ARTS

"MIDSUMMER DREAM" GOES '70's

The Playmakers closed their 1997 season with William Shakespeare's A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM. The play was updated to the 1970's.

Directed by Donegan Smith, with technical direction by Chip Haas, Jeff Payne served as stage manager and Jennifer Propst as costume designer.

A large cast included Frank Moshier as Lysander, Catherine Williams as Helena, Mark Rose as Bottom, and Rick Fauquet as Puck. Also, Michelle Bouchard as Titania, David Winters as Theseus, Amy Ogle as Hippolyta, Jason Savage as Flute, and Keith Saine as Quince.

The play was presented in April in the Belk Centrum.

DRAMA WAS SUMMER SHOW

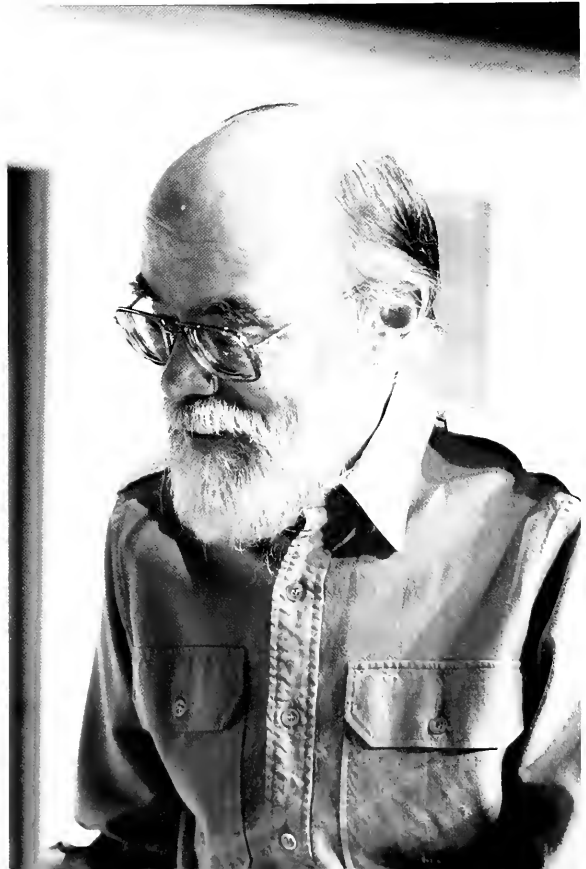

The Lenoir-Rhyne College Summer Theatre presented, in early August, THE HASTY HEART by John Patrick.

The story of a wounded Scottish soldier and set during World War II, the show was directed by Dr. Ellis Boatmon with Chip Haas as technical director.

The cast included Mark Rose (opposite page) as the Scot, Lachlen. Leesa Schoeberle (left) was Margaret, the nurse; and Ben Honeycutt (below left) was Yank, the American.

Also in the cast were Roland Oesterreich (below right) as the Orderly; Jason Eckard, as Digger; Mathew Eberhardt, as Kiwi; Jerome Hoyle, as Blossom; Todd Lewis, as Tommy; and Terry Pitts, as the Colonel.

Lisa Miller was stage manager, Nathan Yoder was technical assistant, and Deanna Goodwin was costumer.

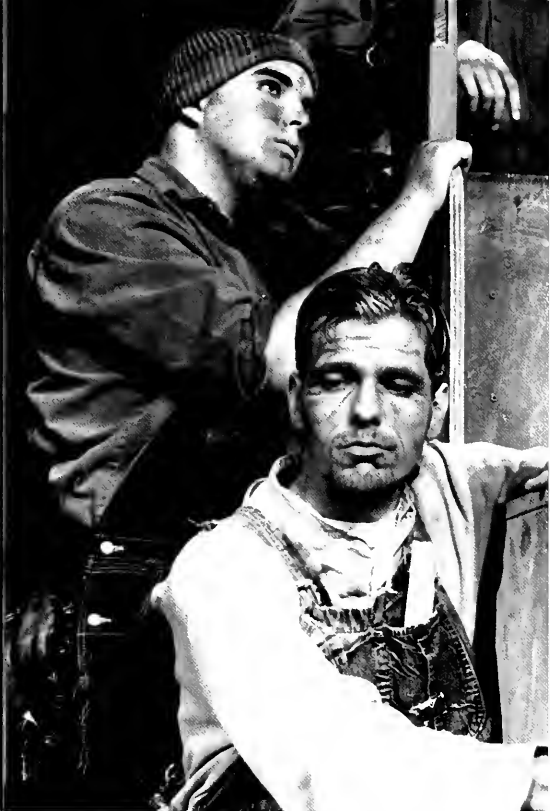

"GRAPES OF WRATH" HAD BEAUTY, POWER

The Playmakers presented John Steinbeck's great classic THE GRAPES OF WRATH on November 6-9, 13-15 in the Belk Centrum.

Directed by Donegan Smith, the set was designed and created by Chip Haas. Angelina Sillik was assistant director, Jennifer Propst was stage manager, and Cynthia Thompson was costume designer.

The large cast included students and members of the LR staff.

Opposite top: The Joad family gathers for the burial of Grandpa Joad, who died on the route to California. Opposite below left: Rick Fauquet as Tom and Nathan Yoder as Pa Joad prepare to leave Oklahoma. Opposite below right: Brandy Cruse as Grandma Joad. Above left: Greg Libke as Noah and Eric Childers as Uncle John. Above right: The entire clan gathers on the old Ford truck for the long trip to better times. Left: David Eckard as Connie, Gretchen Ferris as Rose of Sharon, and Amy Ogle as Ma Joad.

ACADEMICS

PRESIDENT LAHURD

Ryan LaHurd, the tenth president of Lenoir-Rhyne, has like most of the members of the class of 1998, completed his fourth year at the College. He came to Lenoir-Rhyne in August, 1994 after serving as the Dean of Academic Affairs in Augsburg College in Minnesota for a number of years.

President LaHurd, who is of Lebanese descent, is a scholar on the Middle East, although his doctorate is in English literature. During the academic year he traveled to that region, attending a gathering of Lutherans from all over the world in Jerusalem in January, 1998. His emphasis during his presidency has been on the internationalization of the College's curriculum. His wife, Dr. Carol LaHurd, whose advanced degree is in theology, shares his goals. The president is also renowned for his interest in Middle Eastern dishes, which he often prepares himself.

The LaHurd's have two children, Kristen and Jeremy, who have studied at other Lutheran schools.

31ST GREEK AWARDS NIGHT

The 31st annual Greek Awards ceremony was held April 28, 1997, in the Belk Centrum. Dr. Ellis Boatmon, founder of the awards, served as master of ceremonies.

One of the night's big winners was Chris Campbell, a member of Theta Chi fraternity. Chris is shown (opposite top) with Dr. and Mrs. Michael McDaniel, having won the McDaniel Citizenship Award. He also received the Clayton Scholarship Award, the Adams Memorial Scholarship, and the Fraternity Junior Award.

Above left are Rachel Rule and Ben Payseur, Sophomore Greeks; Mike Arning (above right), Jenkins Presidential Cup, shown with Dr. Jane Jenkins; and Sean O'Connor, Janene Mattox, and Cameron Norman (left) as recipients of the Made-A-Difference Award. Jennifer Hench also received the award but was absent from the picture.

The Man of the Year Award went to Mike Arning (Pi Kappa Phi) and the Woman of the Year Award to Kristi Wietzke (Sigma Kappa).

A TRIBUTE

MAN FOR ALL SEASONS

LIKE THOMAS MORE — Ellis always stuck to his principles, but envisioned a Utopia of brilliant students, good Southern cooking, and monthly Oscar Awards.

LIKE THOMAS MORE — Ellis put the needs of his academic community in forefront — At L-R he nourished the Greeks, supported athletics, and created summer theater.

LIKE THOMAS MORE — Ellis reached out beyond the campus to touch many lives in the Hickory community — His theater column in The Hickory News entertained and informed his readers and often jump-started many a production with his thoughtful reviews.

Most of all, he delighted us with his wonderful acting talent, on stage and in his classes. Who could forget how Edward II met his end (pardon the pun, Ellis), or the drama of the Titanic on the night of April 14, 1912, or Captain Hook plotting mischief to Peter Pan and dancing to the strains of a tarantella.

LIKE THOMAS MORE — he was devoted to family and friends. He was ever attentive to his vivacious mother — loved card games and going to theater with faculty comrades, Carolyn, Bill and Jo — kept up constant trivia games — Shakespeare and movies — with Suzie.

LIKE THOMAS MORE — Ellis will be long remembered — with our deepest affection — as our

MEET A BEAR

The HACAWA is pleased to present 22 members of the student body, with brief sketches describing why they came to Lenoir-Rhyne and what the college means to them. They represent a cross-section of the areas from which LR draws students.

KARENA LANCE

Birthday: 6-24-76
Year: Senior
Hometown: Asheville, N.C.
Major: Psychology
Favorite teacher: Dr. David Ludwig
Why chose LR: "I liked the small campus and friendly atmosphere"
Favorite place: Glenn Hilton Park
Memorable moment: Accepting my bid to Delta Zeta
Message: "Seize the moment. Don't look too much to the past or the future. Just enjoy the present and make the most of it."

KARA PROPST

Birthday: 12-28-75
 Year: Senior
 Hometown: Franklin, West Virginia
 Major: Theology
 Why chose LR: "I wanted to live in North Carolina and LR offered me the best package deal."

 Why chose LR: "I was looking for a small, southern school with deaf education and friendly people"
 Favorite place: The Hickory Brewery
 Memorable moment: The snow storm of '96
 Message: "What lies behind us and what lies beyond us are small matters compared to what lies within us."

GEOFFREY LIU

Birthday: 9-2-77
 Year: Junior
 Hometown: College Park, Maryland
 Major: English
 Favorite teacher: Professors Ron and Rose Mahan
 Why chose LR: "It was the most monetarily beneficent of the institutions I considered for possible matriculation"
 Favorite place: the Theta Xi front porch
 Message: "I had a teacher who once said 'Don't let college get in the way of your education.' I should have listened."

BEAR WORDS

BEARS — the nickname for LR's athletic teams.

BEAR'S LAIR — the campus snack bar serving hamburgers and pizza.

BID DAY — the day each semester when the fraternities and sororities hand-out invitations-to-membership.

CENTER — refers to the Cromer College Center, the hub of the campus.

CENTRUM — a gift of the Belk Foundation, a small auditorium seating over 200 people.

CHAPEL — religious services held each Wednesday at 10 a.m.

CONVO — refers to the convocations and forums held on a Monday or a Friday and presenting varied programs to the college community.

CUB — the student handbook.

FAIR STAR OF CAROLINE — the Alma Mater of Lenoir-Rhyne College.

HACAWA — the college yearbook. It is a combination of the first letters of the Halls, the Campus, and the Walls of Lenoir-Rhyne.

HOMECOMING — that annual event when alumni return to campus and join with the college community in a day of celebration capped with a football game in the afternoon.

HOMER'S — a local sandwich shop on Highway 127 that is a LR tradition.

JOE BEAR — the college mascot. Joe was once a live bear, but in recent years has been a student in a bear costume.

LENOIR-RHYNEAN — the college newspaper.

PLAYMAKERS — the outstanding drama troupe on campus.

PROLOGUE — the orientation program where new students are assisted in their adjustment to college.

SHAW PLAZA — the brick and concrete entrance to the Cromer Center that is a popular gathering place. Named for the late Jerry Shaw.

CONCLUSION

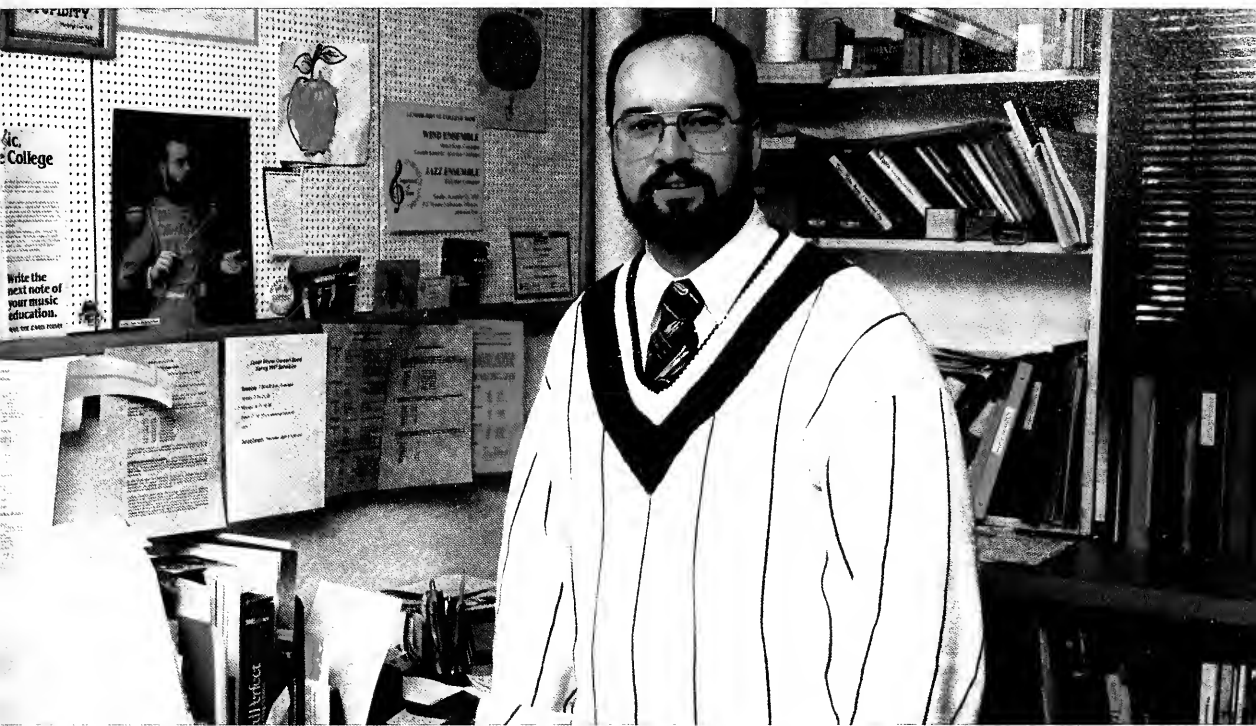

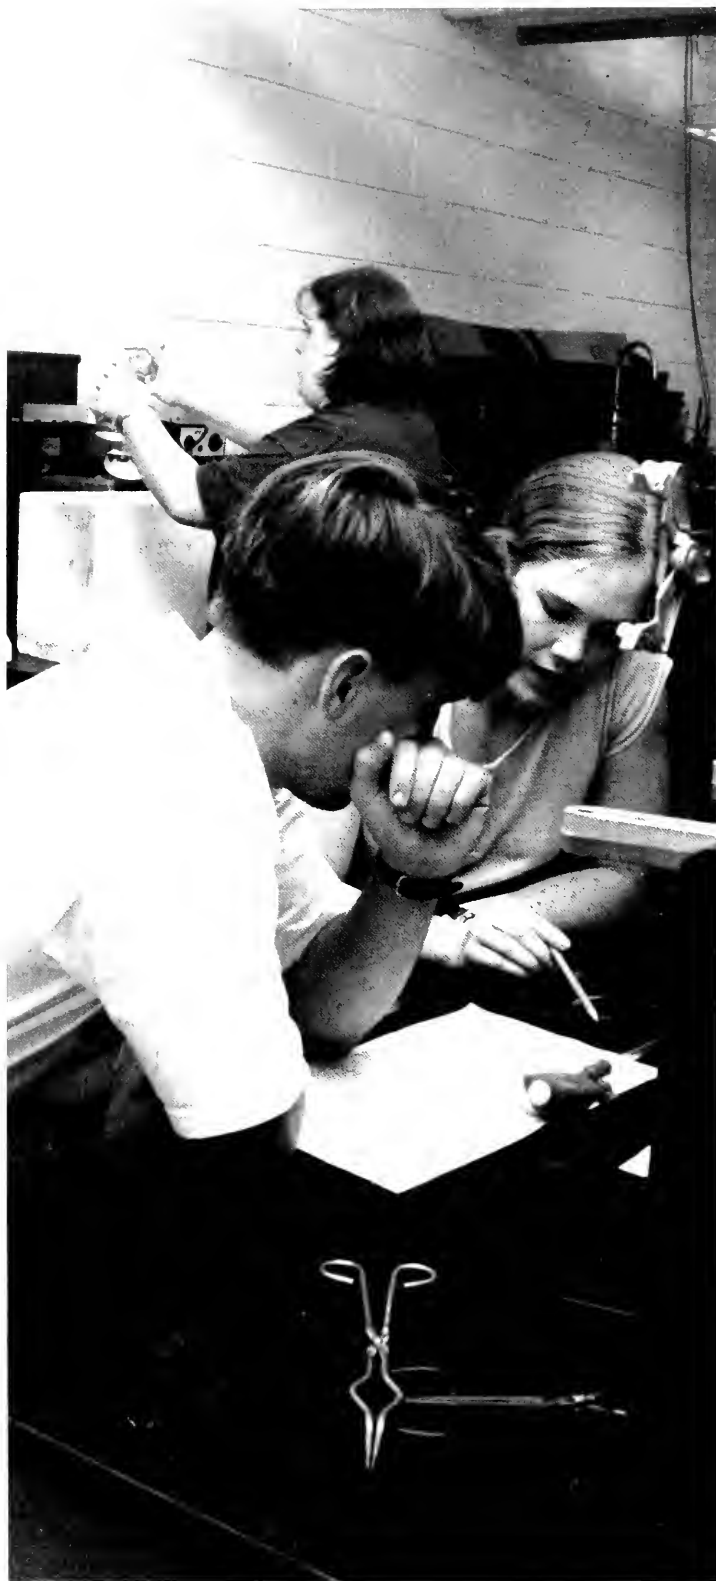

This has been our drama. Told by the players that form this community. And unfolding on the stage that is this place.

This has been our story — with its entrances and exits. This was our day. And now the curtain falls on our drama.

The actors move to the wings of the stage. We await the next act in the drama of life.
